Why Madison? Ranked among the top ten universities in the United States, UW-Madison is consistently considered one of the nation’s “happiest” schools by the Huffington Post. The city of Madison, Wisconsin, is home to a vibrant artistic community, and the School of Music – with its world-class faculty and diverse areas of study – is ranked in the top 10% of music programs nationally.

Want more information? Feel free to contact our faculty to request sample lessons and discuss possible audition repertoire. If you would like to arrange a campus visit/tour of the School of Music, please contact James (below).

Ready to apply? Read the directions in this guide carefully before applying. Visit our website for detailed information about each degree program. From start to finish, the application process can take 3-5 days to complete. Please allow ample time for your materials to be received by the December 1 deadline.
